SHIPPING CHARGES

Due to ongoing disruption caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, and new BREXIT rules, we now ship all orders in the UK and Europe via traceable methods. Please see our website for a full list of shipping prices:

<https://tinyurl.com/ebbsd773>

New BREXIT rules mean all shipments from the UK to Europe may be subject to import VAT and customs clearance charges. These charges will be issued by the courier in advance of delivery and we are currently unable to predict what these charges will be. We are actively working on a solution to be able to ship to our EU customers from within the EU to avoid this in future, but this is still a work in progress. Our website will be updated when a solution is in place.

The Archaeology of Anglo-Jewry in England and Wales 1656–c.1880

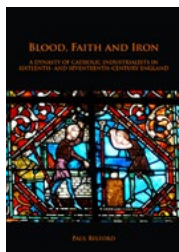

By Kenneth Marks

PB, 175x245mm, 451pp,
ISBN 9781905739769

This volume presents a comprehensive study of the urban topography of Anglo-Jewry in the period before the mass immigration of 1881. The book brings together the evidence for the physical presence of at least 80% of the Jewish community. London and thirty-five provincial cities and towns are discussed.

Blood, Faith and Iron: A dynasty of Catholic industrialists in sixteenth- and seventeenth-century England

By Paul Belford

PB, 175x245mm, 236pp, ISBN 9781789690682

The Ironbridge Gorge is presented as the birthplace of the Industrial Revolution and so part of a national narrative of heroic Protestant individualism. However this is not the full story. This book asserts that this industrial landscape was, in fact, created by an entrepreneurial Catholic dynasty over 200 years before the Iron Bridge was built.

Brass made, used and traded from prehistoric times to 1800

By Vanda Morton

PB, 175x245mm, 370pp,
ISBN 9781789691566

Brass from the Past follows the evolution of brass from its earliest forms around 2500 BC through to industrialised production in the eighteenth century, telling the story in the context of the people, economies, cultures, trade and technologies that have themselves defined the alloy and its spread around the world.

Redonner vie à une collection: les terres cuites communes du fort La Tour

By Julie Toupon

PB, 203x276mm, 248pp,
ISBN 9781789693836

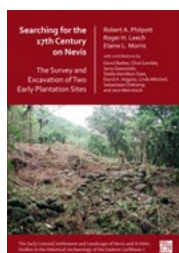

Research on common earthenware from the early 17th century is scarce. This study seeks to bring back to life the ceramics, inhabitants and site where the objects were used. The collection includes 1602 fragments from 277 common earthenware objects coming from the period of occupation of Fort La Tour (1631-1645) in Portland Point, New Brunswick.

SHIPPING CHARGES

Due to ongoing disruption caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, and new BREXIT rules, we now ship all orders in the UK and Europe via traceable methods. Please see our website for a full list of shipping prices:

<https://tinyurl.com/ebbsd773>

New BREXIT rules mean all shipments from the UK to Europe may be subject to import VAT and customs clearance charges. These charges will be issued by the courier in advance of delivery and we are currently unable to predict what these charges will be. We are actively working on a solution to be able to ship to our EU customers from within the EU to avoid this in future, but this is still a work in progress. Our website will be updated when a solution is in
